

HUSTONVILLE.

Gov. Bradley was mingling with friends here Saturday and Sunday.

Rev. W. L. Williams left early Friday morning for Lexington, whither he was called as a curator of Kentucky University. The occasion was the election Saturday of a president for the University to take the place of President Loos, resigned.

There is quite a treat in store for the music lovers of this community in the near future. Madame Bailey will give one of her delightful entertainments at the Christian church here on the evening of May 5th. She will be assisted by Miss Dolly Williams, pianist, and Miss Mary Lusk, elocutionist. The mere announcement of the names of these talented ladies is sufficient to insure a most enjoyable evening. More anon.

Those who did not hear Prof. Peterman lecture Friday evening at the Presbyterian church missed a great deal. He very eloquently and humorously portrayed the pains and pleasures of teaching. We were very sorry that so few took advantage of the opportunity to hear him, but the reflection is on our people and not on the distinguished and eloquent lecturer. He is the author of a well known book on civil government and altogether a pleasant and cultured gentleman. If Miss Mary Thomson expands her share of the proceeds of the lecture judiciously she may be able to purchase a new tin dipper for the school next fall.

Squire L. B. Adams and wife are visiting friends and relatives in the Huble neighborhood. The Squire also has designs upon the finny tribe in Hanging Fork and Dix River. Miss Bettie Logan is visiting Mrs. J. G. Weatherford at Milldale. Prof. Grubbs, of Shelby City, took in the lecture here Tuesday night. Mrs. Sophia Carson is visiting friends at Danville. C. C. VanArsdale and J. B. McKinney were elected delegate and alternate to the meeting of the Transylvania Presbytery at Somerset to-day from the Presbyterian church here. Mrs. John Goodie returned home Friday from a visit to friends in the South. Miss Mary Adams is back from a protracted visit to relatives in Alabama.

WILLOW GROVE.

Mr. Wm. McDonald Waters leaves to-day for Newport to visit his sister, Mrs. G. W. Perryman. Miss Mattie Bosley will make an extended visit to relatives in Missouri. She will remain in Louisville several days with friends.

Mr. Lion L. Dawson tells us that he already has enough pledged votes for assessor to make his election sure. If genuine worth and devotion to party count for anything he will undoubtedly be the nominee of his party and here's hoping that his ambition may be realized.

We noticed among your visitors last Monday, mixing with the ungodly throng, Rev. W. R. Newcom, of Wilmore. His object, however, was not so trivial as that of the usual court day gossip, it being in the interest of a monster sanctification camp meeting, which he proposes to hold near Highland in June. Rev. Newcom, like others who dare invade the fair domain of Lincoln county, has felt the tiny shaft from Cupid's bow and is soon to lead to the nuptial altar Miss Susie Shannon, of Moreland. The bride expectant is a step daughter of Mr. Joshua Myers and is said to be a very estimable young lady.

LUCIES M. LEWIS.

The wars of the last 70 years have cost Russia $1,775,000,000 and the lives of 654,000 men.

Competition has reduced the price of coal oil at Elizabethtown from 13 to 8 cents a gallon.

James Deakins was killed and Mr. Humphrey Washburn and Mrs. Deakins badly injured in a runaway at Eminence.

Annie Clark, a comely young woman, has married the "turtle man," a deformed negro dwarf in a dime museum in New York City.

Gratiot county, Mich., pays a bounty for the heads of English sparrows and already 40,000 have been redeemed this season, without practical abatement of the nuisance.

The sugar makers in Vermont are busy tapping their sugar orchards, but the season will have only about half the output of that last year. All the same though, maple syrup will be as cheap as ever. The larger quantity of it never sees a maple tree any way.

Gen. Thomas L. Clingman, of North Carolina, formerly a representative and a United States Senator, and a Confederate veteran, has applied for admission to the Confederate Soldiers' Home at Raleigh, as he is homeless and penniless. He is 83 years old.

Perhaps the first public sale of exclusively fox hounds ever held in the State was that held Wednesday afternoon at Dr. Miller's livery stable. The dogs sold were the property of the Strode's Valley Kennel Club, and were among the best bred dogs in the country. Nineteen being sold at an average of $27, one bitch bringing $75 and a dog $57. Winchester Sun.

LANCASTER, CARRARD COUNTY.

Sales of a lot of shoats at $3 a head are reported.

The Methodist ladies are to have a court day dinner next Monday at the exchange room they are now occupying. Prostrations and deaths from heat are reported in Chicago, New York and Philadelphia and April isn't over two-thirds gone.

Elder J. M. Boswell, a bright young minister of the Bible College at Lexington, filled his regular appointment at Antioch Sunday.

Died, at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Margaret Lunsford, near Preachersville, Mr. Wm. Rigby, aged 70 years. He had been in failing health for some time and his death was expected.

The ladies' aid society will meet Saturday afternoon with Mrs. Jennie West, and the Baptist society Friday afternoon with Miss Sallie Bourne.

The Bible Reading Circle will meet with Mrs. Richard Ward Friday afternoon. The Presbyterian Mite Society meets with Mrs. Margaret Gill this afternoon.

Elder W. P. Walden preached at Scott's Fork Sunday morning and evening. Young Mr. Walden has recently organized a Sunday school at that place, which is very commendable in him.

Many house wives have been quite busy the past two weeks doing their spring cleaning. Lancaster citizens are prepared to show their usual hospitality to visitors and delegates this week of the convention.

Measles are prevailing to quite an extent in town and some portions of the county, but fortunately it is in rather a light form. Whooping cough has also made its appearance and in some cases the schools have been suspended.

Rev. John B. Worrell, D. D., L. L. D., a visiting divine, preached at the Presbyterian church Sunday morning; subject, "The Realization of a Christian Life." He also preached the union sermon Sunday night at the same church.

All ages, from the laughing youth to the man of older growth, are seen many times of late with fishing tackle in hand, wending their way to the riverside. Some of the young boys return heavy laden with long strings of the finny tribe.

Miss Margaret Murphy took her interesting class of kindergarten pupils on a picnic jaunt to the river Saturday. The tally-ho left at 8 in the morning crowded with happy children whose anticipation of a merry day's outing was fully realized.

A certain widower of Garrard who has about lived out his four score years, is so rejuvenated of late over his second marriage that he is said to plant the longest rows of corn upon the most winding and steepest hillside with the activity of a young man.

The hemp crop of Garrard is more profitable or pays better than any other. H. A. B. Marksbury, Lancaster's principal grain merchant, has already shipped over 900,000 lbs., having paid 25c more per hundred than the buyers in other towns around. The farmers are very much encouraged and will cultivate it more extensively.

Mrs. Mary Sandifer, wife of Judge N. Sandifer, who died in Danville recently, was with her husband and children a resident of Lancaster many years. The deceased was a Greene, a daughter of Mr. Henry Greene, of this county, and a cousin of Mrs. E. L. Harris and Mrs. Solon Henry. Mrs. Sandifer was an excellent Christian woman and a devoted church member.

Died of sun stroke on Friday in this county at his home near McCreary, Mr. Elijah Saunders, at the advanced age of 70 years. Mr. Saunders was a wealthy widower and highly respected in the community. Only a few days ago the deceased was in town looking as hale and hearty as anyone, but in a brief space of time his pilgrimage was over. The remains were interred in the Lancaster cemetery Saturday.

The program of the W. C. T. U. district convention which meets here 21 to 23 is as follows: First address of welcome by Mrs. L. F. Hubble, of this place; lecture by Mrs. Francis E. Beauchamp, of Lexington. The address will be responded to by Mrs. J. C. Johnson, of Wilmore. On to-morrow night, Mrs. Lucy A. Nield, of Louisville, will lecture. On Thursday night, Mrs. Josephine K. Henry, of Versailles, will address the Lancaster people. She will also speak Friday night on "American Citizenship." All of our sister cities are most cordially invited to aid the convention by their presence and we can assure them they will be entertained.

Mr. David Arnold, of Nicholasville, was a visitor last week of his son, W. A. Arnold, and family. Miss Theodocia Leavell, of Richmond, is the guest of Mrs. J. C. Hemphill and other relatives.

Mrs. H. A. Price left Saturday on a visit to her daughter, Mrs. S. P. Grant, of Danville. Miss Grace Grinstead, of Stanford, was a visitor last week of her sister, Mrs. Dr. Bryant, Rev. John B. Worrell, wife and mother, of Keokuk, Iowa, were guests Sunday of Rev. W. P. Nelson and wife. E. P. Lillard, a former citizen of Lancaster, was shaking hands with friends here on Saturday. Misses Christine Bradley and Bettie Robinson leave Thursday to visit Miss Mary Dunn, of Danville. Mr. J. E. Doores and sister, Miss Bettie, visited their brother, Dr. W. M. Doores, and family, of Crab Orchard, last week. Mr. John E. Greenleaf, of Richmond, is on a visit to his mother, Mrs. Lucinda Greenleaf. H. C. Payne, of Athens, has joined his wife here for a short visit.

OF A LOCAL NATURE.

The Clemens Hotel at Danville has closed for lack of patronage.

The London base ball team defeated the Williamsburg Friday 13 to 10.

H. H. Carpenter, aged 83, and member of the Christian church for 40 years, died at Mt. Vernon.

Prof. W. C. Grinstead, of Danville, will conduct the Madison county Teachers' Institute this year.

H. B. Waldrop, a conductor on the Queen and Crescent, was killed at Walton by an overhead bridge.

Mrs. Lucy Chestnut, wife of Thos. Chestnut, and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Shadon, died at Somerset last week.

After consulting 18 hours the jury gave Joe Brown 10 years at Lawrenceburg for killing Polk Moffatt in 1893. Wat Hardin was counsel for the defense. Mrs. Mary Ball, wife of John Ball, a farmer near Lancaster, died Thursday night of pneumonia. She was 65 years of age and is connected with a good family and is very wealthy.

Hon. John Sam Owsley, Jr., of Stanford, democratic candidate for Congress in this district, dropped into town Wednesday to spend a week mingling with the democrats of Madison, many of whom he has already met on previous visits here. He regards Madison as the battleground between himself and his opponent, Mr. Force, and says that he is not only going to make a house-to-house but mouth-to-mouth canvass of the county, which, if he can carry it, will, he feels, ensure him the nomination. He has numerous relatives in Madison, all of whom will lend him aid, and with such able lieutenants as Assessor P. B. Broadus, ex-Circuit Clerk W. H. Miller and others, Mr. Owsley's cause is in good hands. —Richmond Register.

NAPIER. —J. M. B. contributes the following to the genealogical column of the Courier Journal: Benjamin Napier came from Goochland, Va., settled in Lincoln county, Ky., and married Margaret, daughter of Thomas Wilson, and had eight children, five sons and three daughters, Jane married — Ross; Patrick Henry married Kate Pollock; Thomas never married; William married Sallie A. McCarty; Elizabeth Woodson married Harrison Pigg; Wallace died unmarried; Patsy married Dr. Mat Rigney; John died unmarried; Benjamin died in 1833. Thomas Wilson served in two wars; was wounded in the Mexican war and served throughout the late war on the Confederate side; was promoted to colonel; wounded at Lookout Mountain. He was killed in 1863 at Stanford, Ky., while in discharge of his duty as sheriff.

The Bowling Sunday Journal says it has received a number of inquiries relative to the position it would occupy towards a democratic nominee who favored the free coinage of silver at the ratio of 16 to 1, and although an answer to this question might easily have been found in its columns in every issue, it takes the opportunity to state again that, believing the interests of this country will be best subserved and its welfare promoted through the operation of the fundamental principles of democracy, and believing these principles can never bear fruit in the prosperity of the people except through the medium of the democratic party, the paper, though it could not endorse the free coinage of silver at any but the commercial ratio, yet, in order to preserve the organization and autonomy of the party, will support the regular party nominee. No democrat would do less than this.

Mr. Rockefeller has given the Missionary Union $50,000 which enables it to pay out for this year, and the debt is reduced to $167,000. As they have cut expenses $100,000, there is great reason to hope another year will enable them to pay off the debt entirely.

At Fostoria, O. John Fitzgerald was knocked from the railroad by an engine and nearly every bone in his body was broken. Strange to say the two full bottles of beer he had in his pockets were not even cracked.

The New York Legislature has passed a bill to prohibit women from being bartenders and the Chicago council has adopted an ordinance to the same effect, thus curtailing the rights of the new woman.

Larkin Cress, in jail at Beattyville for selling whisky without license, has been indicted for continuing the traffic while a prisoner, with the jailer and the other prisoners for customers.

POLITICAL POINTERS.

Free silver clubs are being organized in Arkansas to push Bland's presidential boom.

Ex-Gov. McKinley is a Methodist, yet he believes in the good old Presbyterian doctrine of election.

Congressman Owens is allowed by the general deficiency bill $1,993.05 on account of expenses incurred in his contest.

Bob Taylor has declared for free silver and the democrats of Tennessee would do well to let him stay on the lecture platform.

Congressman Colson and N. T. Howard, are the new members from Kentucky at large of the Republican State central committee.

C. M. Barnett, of Ohio county, was made chairman of the republican State central committee, and W. E. Riley was retained as secretary.

Bill Bradley, oh, Bill Bradley, So slim, alas, your chance, We fear soon your band-wagon Will be an ambulance. —Times.

All the indications from the 13th district are that our cousin, Dr. Walton, will be defeated by W. J. Bale for Senator to-day. We hope so at any rate.

Maine republicans put forth Reed for the presidency on a platform declaring against free silver coinage, protective tariff and vigorous foreign policy.

Dr. W. Godfrey Hunter says that if he had been elected Senator, Gov. Bradley would have had a solid delegation to St. Louis. But then it is so much better thus.

The indications are that the democratic committee, which meets in Louisville to-morrow, 22d, will call the State convention at that city not later than May 15.

Nine tenths of the republicans regard Bradley's presidential aspirations as a joke and the other tenth only see anything else in it as a matter of policy and prospective pie.

Presidential electors chosen for the State at large by the republican convention were O. S. Deming, of Laurel, and Sam Kash, of Clay. The assistant electors are D. S. Phillips, of Knox, and Marshall Yarberry, of Adair.

Senator Daniel wants an emphatic declaration for free silver by the Virginia democratic convention. It is to be hoped that such a sentiment does not prevail among the more sensible and conservative of the Old Dominion.

Though we hear he is a willin' Barkis, Hon. R. H. Tomlinson has not yet announced his candidacy for delegate to the National democratic convention. Charles H. Rodes and J. Stone Walker are the only candidates yet announced.

W. L. Lyons, the republican legislator who says he was importuned by Gov. Bradley to vote for John M. Atherton and against St. John Boyle for United States Senator, got the highest vote cast in the convention for alternate delegate, 1,052. Is there any significance in this?

It is a gratifying fact that a large majority of the democrats of this county are for sound money; that is they are not in favor of the government paying silver mine owners a bounty of about 50 cents on the dollar. There is no justice in it, yet there are a few men in the county who believe that there is. —Mt. Vernon Eagle.

The Fifth appellate district is composed of the counties of Henry, Trimble, Carroll, Gallatin, Owen, Scott, Franklin, Bourbon, Fayette, Woodford, Garrard, Boyle, Jessamine, Madison, Mercer, Lincoln, Rockcastle, Clay, Jackson, Laurel, Knox and Owsley. Judge Pryor is the only announced candidate in either party and it is likely there will be no other.

Sam Roberts says in the Lexington Leader: "It is admitted on all sides that Gov. Bradley is supported for the presidency in Kentucky on personal and sentimental grounds, and not because any republican believes he has a chance to be nominated." He further says that had not the Bradley men proposed a compromise they would have come out much worse than second best.

In ruling on contested delegations Chairman Yerkes held that in counties where there was a contest neither side could vote. The central committee has adopted a resolution reversing this ruling by giving the right to the sitting delegation to vote. The committee also adopted a rule that hereafter in all State conventions no county shall be allowed to vote which has not a resident delegate of the county present to cast the vote.

The Courier Journal gives the sound money democrats these good suggestions: Organization, vigilance and firmness in selecting the delegates to the State convention. Determination that only sound money men shall be chosen to represent a sound money party. The entire abandonment of the good-natured policy of theoretically advocating sound money, but practically advancing free silver by supporting free silver men because they are good fellows and seek such support. Let the sound money democrats of Kentucky see to it that no negligence on their part shall assist in bringing about a silver declaration. Get ready to work for Carlisle, and the best currency and an honest tariff.

W. P. WALTON.

We say it in sorrow and regret, but Kentucky's entry in the republican presidential handicap will not start. He only secured instructions from his State by a humiliating compromise and after a scramble for a place worst than was ever known in a constable's race. The delegates to the St. Louis convention stand 16 to 10 in favor of Gov. Bradley, who is not likely to get even a complimentary vote. All this comes of not knowing when to let well enough alone. To have carried the democratic stronghold of Kentucky ought to have been enough glory for our governor for a few years at least, but the desire to be boss springs eternal in his bosom and there is now no help in him. As a friend and fellow citizen, we want to whisper a few words into your ear, Gov. Bradley: Throw aside presidential ambitions for the nonce, get down to the business of your office, which doesn't mean the pardoning of every A. P. A. scoundrel who gets into trouble or of other criminals that the courts have pronounced guilty, and looking neither to the right nor to the left, keep in the middle of the road of right, "as God shall give you power to see the right," as you so nicely promised in your inaugural. Do these things, and the INTERIOR JOURNAL will still continue to be your best friend, as it always has been.

CHAIRMAN LONG, having suggested that the Kentucky State convention keep the currency question in the background and await the decision of the National convention in the matter, Secretary Carlisle is said to have entered a protest to such time serving and dodging methods and added that unless the issue is squarely made by an unequivocal declaration for sound money, he would not value a personal endorsement. Of course he would not and we are surprised that a fighter like Long should want to evade a question that must be settled now and for all the time. If the democratic party is the party of fiat money and a debased currency, it can not be known too soon, and if on the other hand it is for sound money and the maintenance of the credit of the government it ought to be declared at once on the house tops. Kentucky has always held a good hand in shaping the policy of the party and she should speak now in no uncertain sounds. The only hope of democracy is to continue to be the party of the people by demanding freer trade and a dollar that is recognized at its full value everywhere, giving a deaf ear to monopolies, silver mine owners and other interested concerns.

The New York Journal has letters from so-called leading democrats from every State in the Union, which show that the West and South will be largely for free silver, while the East and Middle States will declare against such coinage. The alleged leaders profess to think that a declaration for free silver is the only salvation of the democratic party and the only one on which it can hope to win. Defeat with honor would be preferable to success with dishonor. Give us Carlisle and a declaration against a debased currency too plain to be misunderstood and we can go forth deserving the victory that we will win.

SURROUNDED by Goebel, Bronet and Jack Chinn old Gov. Worthington was as meek as a spring lamb at Frankfort, but on his native heath he seems to be a fighter. Leastwise he threw an ink stand at an offending lawyer in Greenup court and hit an unoffending one. The speakers of the two Houses are bad men from Bitter Creek when they are not at Frankfort.

JUDGE HOLT, one of the best men in the republican party, was turned down for delegate from the State-at-large and by a negro. They say that Bradley did it and the judge is naturally hot in the collar as are also his friends. It also pains us to observe that Judge Boreing of London, was likewise beaten by the "blasted nigger."

TIMES must be looking up or a great many people are using money and time, which ought to be devoted to the payment of their debts, when $5,000 persons can waste three or four hours and give up 50 cents each to witness the six opening games of base ball played in as many cities, as they did Thursday.

EDITOR J. M. BIRDWHISTELL, of the Lawrenceburg News, has been granted license to practice law. He was already a church elder and the superintendent of a Sunday school, but he will have to give these up now. Their duties come naturally to an editor, but they are thoroughly incompatible to a lawyer.

The late Paul Goetz, of Lexington, was a most obliging man. In a fit of anger his wife told him to go and kill himself. Thereupon he got a rope and in a few minutes was a demmed moist body. All mean husbands should be as obedient.

ACCORDING to Spanish estimates, there are only 35,000 Cuban insurgents in arms and many of them are mere boys. And yet they have been able to cope with the whole of the Spanish army. Their cause is right and for once might does not prevail.

THERE is now no longer any doubt about the nomination of McKinley, who will "stand with both feet" on a wobbly currency platform to catch 'em a'coming and a'going, and a straight out declaration for protection. If the democratic party is true to its self and its traditions, it will give us John G. Carlisle on a platform of sound money, freer trade and sailor's rights, and there will be no doubt of victory.

CHAIRMAN BLANFORD promised Bradley that if he would make him permanent chairman of the convention, he would appoint two members from State-at-large on the central committee that he would suggest. But Brer Bradford didn't do a thing but go back on his promise so soon as he had the chance and appointed two men, who went over Bradley collar. Now the governor and the speaker of the House do not speak as they pass by.

THE suggestion that Mr. W. B. Haldeman, of the Courier Journal, be named as a delegate to the National democratic convention, meets with warm approval in Louisville and is gratifying to his friends all over the State who earnestly hope he will be chosen. He is straight out for Carlisle and sound money and that's the kind of a man to send to the convention at Chicago.

THE town government of Gaylord, Kansas, is now entirely under petticoat government, as the home government has been all the time. The mayor, police judge, clerk and council are all women, who are about evenly divided politically, the mayor being a democrat. If they don't run things in a hole, it will be because there's a rat in it.

THE Watertown, N. Y., Presbyterian church has fired Rev. W. N. Cleveland, a brother of the president, for no other reason which we can see, except that they are republicans and did not want a democrat to preach for them. But it is the nature of the republican brute to be proscriptive and like the leopard he can not change his spots.

THE State Bi-metallic League composed of a few editors, who have never studied the currency question or do not understand it if they have, met in Louisville last week and held a secret conclave. The only thing they made public is that the league is opposed to Carlisle, which is a decided compliment to that great statesman.

CONSIDERING that Dan E. O'Sullivan, of the Critic, is a Catholic or of Catholic predilections, and Gov. Bradley is a red hot A. P. A., it is hard to perceive the wherefore of the umbilical attachment that the editor would have with the governor.

THE Louisville Post's artist uses a hatchet and a handsaw to make cuts of the Kentucky editors, else they are the "oneness" looking set ever gotten together. Even as ugly as is Editor A. R. Dyche, of the London Echo, he is not so hideous as he is made to appear.

—Henry Brown, who escaped from the Frankfort penitentiary once by playing crazy and securing a pardon, has been trying to get out of the Leslie county jail by pretending to have hydrophobia.

—Congressman Colson pretends to have no fear of the knives that are being whetted for him in the 11th district by other aspirants for Congress. There are half a dozen men who will contest the nomination with him.

—In an interview at Chicago, W. H. Griffith, late chairman of the republican State central committee of Colorado, said Colorado would give its vote to whatever party nominates a free silver candidate. But the game isn't worth the candle for either party.

FARM AND TRADE ITEMS.

—German millet seed for sale at B. K. Wearen's.
—A heavy frost in California last week did great damage to the grape vines.
—I will stand two good jacks at $7 to insure living colts. M. S. Baughman.
—A Bourbon county farmer is holding 1,200 barrels of corn until it reaches $2 per barrel.
—At Hill, Jenkins & Sons' sale of horses at Bowling Green, 90 sold at an average of $112 50.
—Prince Imperial was defeated at Newport Saturday by Sidkel. He had won 12 straight races.
—B. K. Wearen is headquarters for cultivators, corn planters, barrows, &c. Lowest prices.
—Thompson Bros. bought in Casey and Adair counties a bunch of steers and heifers at $10 to $13.50.
—At a public sale of Poland-China hogs in Illinois the other day, 40 head brought an average of $90 each. One brood sow sold for the fabulous sum of $880, the highest price ever paid.

—Sir Vassar, from San Francisco, and Ben Brush, from New York, were among the distinguished arrivals in Louisville Sunday.

—I am in the wool trade and will pay the highest market price. See me before you sell, it will be to your advantage. I. M. Bruce.

—J. C. Johnson's stable near Lexington, burned, causing a loss of $10,000. It was in this stable that Belle Boy was kept when he sold for $51,000.

—Edward Partridge, the great wheat gambler of Chicago, is dead. He is said to have made $1,500,000 once in an hour in speculating on his favorite cereal.

—A. B. Wagers took to Lexington, 25 head of nice butcher cattle, bought of N. B. Coy and others, at 2 1/2 cents. He reports the trade very dull. — Richmond Register.

—It now costs about 45 cents to ship a barrel of flour from Louisville to Liverpool, Eng., which is about six cents less than it costs to ship the same flour to Stamford.

—I want your wool and will pay the highest market price for it. If I am not at home when you call, see W. C. Snanks at Warren & Snanks' grocery. William Moreland.

—DANVILLE. — Wm. M. Rue was some worse yesterday and there are fears that he won't get well. Crowd rather small and cattle trade dull. Few butcher stuff sold at 2c; steers and heifers 2 1/2 to 2 3/4.

—Inside of 11 months a Grant county sow had 31 pigs, and inside of 28 months she had produced 43 young porkers. The four litters have been as follows: Twelve, nine, 10, 12, in the order named.

—The sale of Mrs. Jane Barrow's effects was well attended considering there wasn't a great deal to sell, outside of household goods. A cow and calf brought $22 and the farm of 30 acres including the house was rented by J. P. Bush till Dec. 1 for $50.

He Took No Chances.

"Here's a good scheme," she said, looking up from the paper she had been reading.
He seemed a trifle suspicious, but it was so evident that he was expected to ask about it that he made the inquiry.
"Why, it says that some wives shave their husbands and in that way save what he would ordinarily pay to a barber," she explained.
"Mary," he said, after a moment's thought, "you may get that gown you spoke about this morning. It won't be necessary for you to get at my throat with a razor." — Chicago Post.

A Hint.

"George, dear!"
She looked anxiously at the clock, which pointed to 12:30.
"What is it, love?"
"I don't wish to hurry you away, George, but you know that papa is not overly fond of you, and he is an early riser."
At this hint George commenced to get ready to take his departure. — Harper's Bazar.

A Plea for Mercy.

"Prisoner," said the judge to the convicted bigamist, "stand up. Have you anything to say why sentence should not be passed on you?"
"I throw myself upon the indulgence of the court," exclaimed the prisoner, nervously. "Is a life sentence possible? Both ladies have mothers." — Town Topics.

The Better Way.

The past is gone. Don't worry over the grave of things that were.
The future isn't here. Don't fret over what may never occur.
The present is so fleeting it is hardly worth the while to wish it might be changed. So let's philosophize and smile.
— L. A. W. Bulletin.

Thoroughly Experienced.

Mr. Olden — Your theorizing is all well enough, Miss Wrights, but what do you women know about life? Have you ever come into genuine contact with the world?
Miss Wrights — Have I? You ought to have seen me come into contact with it when I was learning to ride my bike. — Brooklyn Life.

PERSONAL POINTS.

MISS OPHELIA LACKY is seriously ill of fever.

MISS ANNA MENEFEE came home from Chicago Saturday night.

MISS MARY KAY has returned from her winter's sojourn in Louisiana.

MR. P. M. McROBERTS went to Mt. Vernon on legal business Friday.

MRS. W. H. KIRBY and Miss Mattie Thompson have returned from Memphis.

MISS NETTIE WHAY returned Saturday from a visit to relatives at Bloomington, Ill.

MR. G. L. PRESCOTT, a London, Eng., capitalist, was here on business this week.

MISS MARY DOUGLAS and Walker Baxter, of Boyle, visited Mrs. B. N. Roller Sunday.

MR. J. D. HOLDERMAN, of the Lebanon Electric Light Co., came up Saturday to visit his parents.

MR. OAKROLL B. REID, the great horseman, was here Saturday en route to his father's at Hustonville.

DR. AND MRS. WYATT I. LETCHER have returned to Danville after spending the winter at Henderson, N. C.

MRS. JANE BALLEW and Miss Bessie Burnside, of Garrard, are visiting Mrs. J. W. Rount and Mr. W. M. Lackey.

MR. AND MRS. W. J. MONTGOMERY, of South Fork Trestle, good friends of the INTERIOR JOURNAL, paid a call Friday.

MISS JENNIE WEST went to Harrodsburg yesterday to spend a week with her mother before opening her private school.

MISS JENNIE WEST, principal of the public school, entertained 20-odd of her pupils at a nice lunch at her boarding house Friday evening.

HON. JOHN S. OWSELEY, Sr., went to Cincinnati yesterday to sell a car load of hogs, which he has been having fed by a neighbor on $1.50 corn.

MR. AND MRS. BENEDICT SPALDING, of Lebanon, came yesterday to visit Col. and Mrs. T. P. Hill. Mrs. Spalding is much improved in health.

MRS. ALICE NEWLAND and Miss Mollie Brooks, of Crab Orchard, went to Louisville Friday to see the great Bernhardt, after which Mrs. Newland went to Indianapolis.

MIKE OWSELEY was up from Hogsett Academy to see his home folks, Sunday, the first time since Christmas. He has grown several inches and weighs 100 pounds.

MR. JOHN P. JONES has made some extensive improvements on his pretty home on Hustonville street. A little later on he will build a cottage on the vacant lot adjoining him.

MR. SAM C. HARDIN, who moved to Louisville from Albany a year ago, has decided to return to the latter place. He has done well in Louisville, but prefers Clinton county to any place.

GOV. W. O. BRADLEY was on Friday's train en route to Mt. Vernon, but he was feeling so blue over his experience with the republican mob, that he failed to show his face at the Stanford side of the car.

MRS. C. H. PAINE, of Boston, is with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Tate. She came here from Hot Springs, Ark., where she left her husband who is rapidly recovering from a severe spell of rheumatism.

MISS JENNIE AND ANNA REID and Flora Whittington, and Messrs. J. W. Allen and F. B. Twidwell, of Hustonville, and James Reid, of Stanford, were here yesterday on a fishing excursion.—Liberty Tribune.

REV. H. O. MORRISON and his beautiful young wife were on yesterday's train en route to Barbourville, where they will hold a meeting with Rev. Wilson, of the Southern Methodist church. Bro. Morrison is clean shaven and looks younger than when he was pastor here a decade or so ago.

CITY AND VICINITY.

COME in and see the latest ideas in shirt waist goods at Shanks'.

FIVE hundred yards of new shirt waist goods on dress parade this week at Shanks'.

GENTLEMEN, look at Severance & Son's 25c undershirts; also finer goods at money saving prices.

THE South bound passenger ran into a bunch of mules near Boston Saturday night and killed five of them.

R. G. HALL tells us that he sold 10 shares of stock in the Somerset Banking Co. last week at $114, a jump of $6 in six months.

THE Stanford Water, Light and Ice Co. bought of J. S. Hundley yesterday about 1 1/2 acres of land adjoining their property for $225.

THE engine of No. 26 broke down near Riley's yesterday morning and a freight engine had to take the train in which it did several hours late.

THE dog tax in Danville amounts to $76 a year. Stanford has a dog tax but it doesn't amount to anything.

PLENTY extra quality chicken feed on hand. Lay in your supply before it is all gone. J. H. Baughman & Co.

BITUMINOUS and Cannel Coal mixed for Cooking Purposes cheaper than cheap. Also the celebrated Bird Eye nut. J. H. Baughman & Co.

TO YOU.—Having sold out my livery business, I insist that you pay me what you owe me. I hope this hint to the wise will be sufficient. Geo. B. Cooper.

WE have bought out G. B. Cooper's livery business and need what you owe us to help pay for it. Don't put us off any longer but come up like a man and settle. M. S. & J. W. Baughman.

FROM present indications Walton's Opera House will not hold all the people who will want to see Madam Jarley's Wax Works Friday evening next. So secure your seat early. W. B. McRoberts will fix you up for 50 cents.

THE Boyle circuit court began yesterday with a light docket. Frank Ellis' case for the murder of Oage Rowsey will be called to-day, but it is likely that it will be continued so that the one against him for killing young Murphy may be tried first.

AUCTION.—George L. Penny, executor of A. R. Penny, has rented Walton's Opera House for the purpose of holding an auction of his jewelry stock. The sale will begin at 2 p. m. Monday, 27th, and continue at 7 p. m., 10 a. m. and 2 p. m. each day till stock is disposed of.

THE young German, Gustave Kotschewer, who shot Mrs. Gette's dog, was let off with "some expenses," as he called it, which meant $10 and costs. He said the "voman" swear he want to kill the whole family, or he would have come clear.

LEG BROKEN.—The Richmond Register says that George Pickett, a student of Central University, and a well-known fraternity man, while wrestling with John Wood, a fellow "Sig," had his left leg broken just above the ankle. Mr. Pickett is a brother of Mrs. Will Severance, of this place.

THE case of W. J. Fields vs. James Robinson for setting dogs on his hogs and injuring them was tried here Saturday, when Mr. Robinson proved that the hogs had gotten into his field through Fields' defective fence and that he had set the dogs on them in self-defense, whereupon the court found for the defendant.

RUNAWAY.—Sunday as Mr. Vincent Geer, better known as "Pat," was taking Miss Minnie Kirkpatrick a spin in his best turnout, the horse ran off and dashed into Needmore, frightened the inhabitants of that quiet hamlet. He attempted to run into Ben Martin's house, but Mr. Martin shut the door in his face, or the wind up might have been worse. The vehicle was pretty badly wrecked, but the occupants suffered much more mental than bodily hurt.

THE claim is made by Hon. Pryor J. Force and his friends that his end of the district deserves the Congressional nomination, because it gives the larger democratic majority. The difference between the democratic and republican vote in that end may be greater, but the democratic vote in the four counties of Mr. Oweley's district, Lincoln, Boyle, Garrard and Mercer, exceed by 202, the vote of Shelby, Spencer, Anderson and Jessamine, and it is in the final race these votes will count. Mr. Oweley has a dead sure thing on six counties of the 11 composing the district and much more than a fighting chance in two or three others, so it begins to look like he has a cinch on the nomination, which his friends have claimed all the time.

BRICK and sand for sale. J. B. Higgins, Stanford.

TOILET articles, fine perfumes. Craig & Hocker Cash Druggists.

READ Severance & Son's list of new goods; go and buy new and stylish goods cheaper than ever before.

FOR SALE.—Two wagonettes, one carrying 10 and the other 16 passengers. Also three drummers' wagons, cheap. M. S. & J. W. Baughman.

WORK on the new reservoir is progressing rapidly and no matter how dry it will be next fall we shall have plenty of water for all purposes, with no order issued against sprinkling.

THE Grace Wharton Mission Band will serve ice and cake in the Christian church lawn next Saturday evening from 7 to 9, after a short service at the church. Everybody is invited to the latter free of charge and all with 10 cents to put up will be welcomed at the former and served with refreshments.

JIM SARGENT, who was indicted at the February term of court for stealing meat from John Lee and George Helm, also colored, was captured Thursday night by Constables Tom Benedict and Tom Bailey. He lives on Mr. George R. Engleman's place, but has made himself scarce since he was indicted.

THE Hogsett Sentinel has been launched on the journalistic world by the students of Hogsett Academy and it is a very neat and creditable paper. We observe that E. P. Pennington is a corporal in the company and mention of him is made as follows: "When he dies a fitting epitaph for his monument will be 'Here lies Eph Pennington; he never did anything else.'"

THE weather continues very hot and dry, with little promise of rain. A shower fell Saturday afternoon but hardly laid the dust. The mercury has been hanging around 90 in the shade and the temperature is really more oppressive than it would be in June. "Generally fair to-night and Tuesday, stationary temperature," is the prediction that now occupies the bulletin board.

THE Quaker Medicine Co., of Marion, Ind., represented by Drs. H. B. North and F. A. Dillingham, arrived yesterday and placed a large platform in front of the court-house, where each night at 7 for two weeks a musical entertainment and an instructive lecture on Quaker methods will be given, along with some pointed suggestions as to the cure-all properties of the medicines they make.

THE exhibition of beautiful wax figures as natural as life, to be given at Walton's Opera House Friday evening, April 24th, is for the benefit of the Young Ladies' Aid Society of the Presbyterian church, which is assisting in the support of a missionary in heathen lands. The cause is therefore a good one and we can guarantee a most amusing entertainment, so if you stay away you are the only one who will suffer.

TO THE CRAFT.—We have great trouble in printing the INTERIOR JOURNAL, owing to the electricity in the paper. We asked the Scientific American for a remedy for the trouble and it responded: "Nothing has yet been invented that will take electricity out of paper that will do it satisfactorily. Moist air palliates the evil but does not always stop it." Can any of our friends of the craft suggest a real remedy for the annoyance?

DRY.—The signal service at Louisville reports this as the driest April on record. To Saturday the rainfall had been but .12 of an inch, when usually there is that much each day in the showery month. It is a very remarkable spell of drouth and the farmers are complaining loudly of inability to prepare their corn land, as it is next to impossible to harrow. Others, however, are hard at planting and one farmer has put in over 100 acres.

DYING.—Mr. W. Lewis Withers, who has been ill of neuralgia of the brain, dreamed Sunday night that his house was afire and in his effort to jump up he burst a blood vessel on the brain, causing spasms and an apoplectic stroke, which paralyzed him. He was unconscious all day yesterday and Dr. Carpenter said his death was a question of very short time, as nearly every chance was against him.

When we went to press last evening, Mr. Withers was sinking fast, and liable to die at any moment.

THE Stanford boys who live in Louisville are rapidly coming to the front. They are prominent in both business and social circles and are saving up a good deal of this world's goods. Sam Wilhite holds a lucrative position with John White; James T. Carson commands a handsome salary from Lowman's Sons & Co.; Ed H. Stallcup is junior member of the wholesale produce firm of Thompson & Co.; John F. Smiley is manager of the Emerson Shoe Store, one of the handsomest in the South; G. M. Cooper is one of J. M. Robinson & Norton's best men, while Charley Cox has a good position with the Sohan Tailoring Co. The two first named have beautiful homes in fashionable parts of the city and live in elegance. The latter four are unmarried, but they are willing souls, most of them, and it is only a question of time till they too will own pretty homes and have somebody to look after their household affairs.

THERE is some talk of the Singer Sewing Machine Co. opening a large office and warehouse here. We would like to see it come and hope that our corpulent friend, Joe Perrin, will be given the management of it.

MATRIMONIAL MATTERS.

—Vick Oliver and Susan Scanlan, each 21, were married here Saturday by the county judge.

—Joseph Abt has obtained license to marry Miss Aurelia Montag at Ottenheim on the 25th.

—Malcolm Kompas, a young glass blower from Germany, and Miss Beckie Jane Powers were married at Ottenheim Saturday.

—A French judge decides that a woman is not an old maid till she reaches and passes her 30th birthday. If this is correct it lifts several here out of that column for a year or two.

—The Chicago girl who has been endeavoring to get out of a marriage into which she entered "for fun" ought to realize by this time that there is no fun in matrimony unless it is taken seriously, while it is very serious only when regarded as a joke.

—During the 35 years of his ministerial life, Rev. B. F. Hungerford has performed the marriage ceremony for 1,010 couples, and not one of the number has ever applied for a divorce. This shows how securely he ties the matrimonial knot.—Shelby News.

—Rev. Frank Cheek, of Paris, who understands the sign language, married Miss Mamie Long and W. E. Carles at Newport. The bride is a graduate of the Deaf Mute Institute at Danville, and holds the honor of being its valedictorian in a class of 300. Her parents are both mutes, as are also a sister and two brothers.

—Mrs. Virgie Graves has brought suit at Lawrenceburg for divorce from her husband, Ollie B. Graves. She is a daughter of Ambrose Portwood and was married September 25, 1891. The grounds are abandonment and cruel treatment and she prays for $60 a month alimony. It will be remembered that some time ago a young man of Nicholasville was charged by Mr. Graves with circulating slanderous stories about his wife.

—A dispatch to Mr. P. P. Nunneley from Georgetown yesterday told of the death from pneumonia of Mr. R. C. Nunneley, his oldest brother, and he and Mrs. J. T. Harris and Mr. L. B. Nunneley left on the noon train to attend the burial to-day. Deceased was 77 years of age and had been a deacon in the Baptist church for many years.

FIRST NATIONAL BANK OF STANFORD, KY.
Capital Stock.....$100,000
Surplus.....23,700
Attention of the public is invited to the fact that this is the only National Bank in Stanford under the provisions of the National Bank Act. Depositors are secured not only by the capital stock, but by the stockholders' liability for amount equal to the stock, so that depositors of the bank are secured by a fund of $200,000. The bank has sworn statements of the condition of the bank made each year to the United States government and its assets are examined at stated times by government agents, thus securing additional perfect safety to depositors.
This institution, originally established as the First National Bank of Stanford in 1863 and re-organized as the National Bank of Stanford in 1865 and re-organized as the First National Bank of Stanford in 1883, has had practically an uninterrupted existence of 31 years. It is better supplied with facilities for transacting business promptly and liberally than ever before in its long and honorable career. Accounts of corporations, fiduciaries, firms and individuals respectfully solicited.
